We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.

As part of the Faculty's commitment to improving Indigenous inclusion, we call upon all members of our community to start/continue their personal journeys towards understanding and acknowledging Indigenous peoples' histories, truths and cultures. Visit indigenous.utoronto.ca to learn more.

BIOGRAPHY

Raised in Bowmanville Ontario, Cody Copland began playing the guitar at age 13, and at the end of high school Cody developed a keen interest in jazz. Since beginning his journey into playing jazz, Cody has studied with some of the finest musicians in the country, including Neil Swainson, Trevor Giancola, Ted Quinlan, and Lucian Gray. Focused on the tradition of the music, Cody's early influences include Clifford Brown, Bud Powell, Charlie Parker, and Peter Bernstein. Having graduated with Honours from Humber College in 2021, Cody is pursuing his Masters degree from University of Toronto.
