BIOGRAPHY

Born and raised in the Prairies, Jeanny Jung is an active violinist currently based in Toronto. She has appeared with numerous orchestras across Canada including the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra, Symphony Nova Scotia, London Symphonia, and Jeans 'n Classics. Jeanny is currently pursuing a Masters in Violin Performance at the University of Toronto under the tutelage of Mark Fewer. She has received numerous awards for her studies from the U of T Graduate program, Dr. Whitmer Firor Music Foundation, and Saskatchewan Orchestral Association. She is also a recipient of the Irene R. Miller Chamber Music Fellowship where she and her string quartet participate in residencies at the Faculty of Music and the Lunenburg Academy of Music Performance.

We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.

As part of the Faculty's commitment to improving Indigenous inclusion, we call upon all members of our community to start/continue their personal journeys towards understanding and acknowledging Indigenous peoples' histories, truths and cultures. Visit indigenous.utoronto.ca to learn more.
