We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.

As part of the Faculty's commitment to improving Indigenous inclusion, we call upon all members of our community to start/continue their personal journeys towards understanding and acknowledging Indigenous peoples' histories, truths and cultures. Visit indigenous.utoronto.ca to learn more.

BIOGRAPHY

Emma grew up in a musical family, singing from early childhood. She began singing formally at age 8, in the choir of St. Matthew the Apostle, Oriole. Emma attended Alexander Mackenzie High School, where she learned tuba, saxophone and cello. graduating with the Arts Music Certificate in 2013. She studied tuba with Jane Maness at Wilfrid Laurier University and graduated with a Bachelor of Music, in Tuba Performance in 2017. In what was supposed to be “a year off” from her studies, Emma learned the violin, and began teaching beginner brass, woodwinds and strings at a small music school in Richmond Hill from 2022-2025. Emma continues to sing, play, and expand her love of music.
