BIOGRAPHY

Yanfeng Pan is a pianist currently pursuing a Master of Music in Piano Performance at the University of Toronto. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Music from York University. His recent achievements include First Place in the Unionville Music Competition and Platinum awards at the Kiwanis Music Festival. He has performed in recitals and masterclasses across Canada, China and Europe. He is interested in exploring the connections between music, performance, and psychological well-being.

We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Wendat Nation, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit. Today, this meeting place is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work on this land.

As part of the Faculty's commitment to improving Indigenous inclusion, we call upon all members of our community to start/continue their personal journeys towards understanding and acknowledging Indigenous peoples' histories, truths and cultures. Visit indigenous.utoronto.ca to learn more.
